

Project Architects—

Seattle, San Francisco

Mithun is looking for concept-driven, technically-focused Project Architects to join our integrated design team of Architects, Interior Designers, Landscape Architects, Urban Designers and Urban Planners collaborating to advance design and technical excellence, environmental performance and social justice on projects focused where people live, work and learn.

Qualified candidates have 5+ years of experience, a degree in architecture, demonstrated experience with all phases of the design and documentation process using Revit, coordination of consultants and the ability to work with interdisciplinary design teams and client representatives. Architectural registration is ideal. We seek expertise in one or more of the following areas:

- Multi-Unit Housing and Mixed-Use Buildings including developing unit types, amenity spaces, accessibility, and applicable codes.
- Type I and/or Type V over 1 Construction.
- High-Rise design, high-rise construction methodologies and high-rise building codes.
- Creative Workplace design with high-tech clients on innovative, experiential office and workplace design solutions.
- Mass Timber design and familiarity with modular construction is also desirable ranging from volumetric, flat pack, post and panel and panel prefabrication systems.
- Construction Administration.

At Mithun, our design has purpose—to create positive change in people’s lives. We are an internationally recognized leader in planning and design, with a focus on sustainable performance, human health and social equity. Mithun has been recognized with diverse national awards including six AIA Committee on the Environment Top Ten Awards, is a JUST organization and is ranked among the top firms in the nation by Architect magazine.

We embrace justice, equity, diversity and inclusion (JEDI) as key expressions of our mission of Design for Positive Change. We are committed to promoting JEDI both internally and externally, in our firm culture, project work and partnerships. Our goal is not just good intentions but real impact for the people, communities and clients we serve.
